

The Ultimate Resource for Group Travel Planners

NTA
trip planner

2012-13

More than 175
group-friendly attractions
and experiences!

How to strengthen your tour business

21 top group
destinations
from A to Z

Plug into These Outlets

Outlet shops provide a ready-made way for travel planners to work in the all-important shopping stop to their itineraries. These strategically located centers feature a who's-who of designer brands, well-known department stores and specialty shops. Plus, beyond the bargains, the following NTA members offer special events, runway shows, cooking demonstrations and much more at their centers.

America's Premier Shopping Places/ General Growth Properties

From Miami to Seattle and Baltimore to Honolulu, the company has 25 retail centers across the United States. Groups are eligible to receive a Premier Passport Packet, which is filled with shopping and dining discounts, special offers and amenities from participating retailers and restaurants.

Fashion Outlets of Las Vegas, Niagara and Santa Fe

With locations in Las Vegas (100-plus stores), Niagara Falls (150-plus stores) and Santa Fe, New Mexico (25-plus stores), Fashion Outlets offers top-name brands at discounted prices. Watch for the company's fourth outlet, Fashion Outlets of Rosemont Chicago, which will debut in August 2013.

Historic Shopping & Dining Attractions

Travel planners can choose from HSDA's three properties: South Street Seaport and South Street Seaport Museum in New York City, Faneuil Hall Marketplace in Boston and Union Station DC in America's capital. Each location combines shopping, dining, free entertainment and exhibits in a historical setting.

Premium Outlets | SIMON

Premium Outlets are located in major markets around the world, including New York City, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Boston, Chicago, Mexico City and Tokyo. Each of the 70-plus centers provides special discounts and amenities for groups as well as welcome tours.